5,961 Enrolled
In Schools
Of Saline County

OUR SCHOOLS: John Murphy, affable assistant county superintendent of schools, has supplied Timmo with enrollment figures for the entire county of Saline, and if I've added 'em up correctly, which I probably haven't but could have, possibly, total enrollment is off just a trifle.

The way I've added 'em—I wish John had done it so they would have been authentic—the enrollment this year is 5,961 against 5,996, which is pretty doggone close with just a loss of 35.

The four high schools gained, according to the figures, with 1,775 in secondary education classes against 1,718 last year. Elementary enrollment is off—4,196 this year compared with 4,278 last year.

High school enrollments are listed as follows this year: Carrier Mills 216, Eldorado 478, Galatia 194 and Harrisburg 887. Carrier Mills and Galatia highs are about the same with Eldorado up 11 and Harrisburg showing an increase of 47.

TEEN-AGER SPEAKS: A teen-ager, Herb Parks of Harrisburg, writes on the matter of highway safety. Says, "Herb,"

"As a teen-ager of 16 I would like to express my opinion on the proposed 65 mph speed limit and teen-ager drivers.

"If the 65 mph limit is set up for purposes of safety to stop fast drivers and accidents caused by them, a minimum of 45 mph should also be set up in order to keep traffic moving at the same rate of speed. The 45 mph minimum would speed up the slow drivers who impede others and increase the road hazard.

"A teen-ager is always in the wrong no matter what happens from the moment he starts the car until he stops it. This is not fair to the many teen-agers who drive with good sense and judgment."

WHILE WE'RE on the subject of our highway problems, let us leave our fair country and journey to another land.

The Police News bulletin put out by the Division of State Highway Police has this item about a new law in Saudi Arabia, an independent kingdom of five million people. Listen to this:

"If an accident occurs as a result of speed and negligence, the offender will be imprisoned for one year and his driving license will be withdrawn. If an accident results in the death of any passengers and the driver is proved to have been the cause, he will be executed whoever he might be."

MRS. DELLA McDONALD of 912 South Cheney street has returned from Chester, where she visited a nephew and niece, Charles and Alice Broadway. Mr. Broadway is a sergeant at Menard penitentiary and Mrs. McDonald writes that she took an interesting trip throughout the prison.

She also brought back an issue of the prison newspaper, the Menard Time, which among other interesting items includes a salute to the prison warden, Mr. Broadway. Here is what the item says:

"This month we salute our laundress under the direction of Sgt. Charles Broadway, who has been employed here for 15 years. He has held the laundry job for the past four years. His duties pertain to all things concerning clothing, issuing all clothing in this division. Clothing that is beyond repair in the small tailor shop is also condemned by him.

"Broadway is also superintendent of the laundry, and assisting him in his job are 31 inmates doing various jobs. These inmates handle over 4,000 pieces of laundry each week for an average of over 500 inmates on average. They are handled by them include shirts, pants, socks, underclothes, sheets and pillow cases.

"All items used in the hydro and also the infirmary are also washed and pressed in the laundry. In his duties as clothing officer, Sgt. Broadway condemns and issues an average of 24 pairs of pants, 24 shirts, 36 pairs of socks, 12 sheets and 12 pillow cases a week."

Heads for Exile After Ouster In Argentina

Revolt Leaders Negotiate To Restore Peace

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—President Juan D. Peron, ousted by a successful revolt against his nine-year rule as dictator, headed for exile in Paraguay today.

The Paraguayan ambassador to Argentina escorted Peron aboard the gunboat Paraguay at 8 a. m. (5 a. m. CST) today.

The former president left to go into exile even as leaders of the revolt negotiated with a 13-man military committee to restore peace to this country.

Paraguayan Ambassador Juan Chaves accompanied Peron on board the gunboat. Then he returned ashore in Buenos Aires. He returned to the vessel later with food and other supplies for Peron's personal comfort because of lack of adequate facilities on board.

Declare Holiday

The gunboat, which had been undergoing repairs in Buenos Aires, was expected to sail momentarily. A terse official announcement said "negotiations on pacification" have begun.

The 13-man committee declared the day a holiday and urged the nation to remain calm.

The Peronista Confederation of Labor, whose one million members supposedly were the backbone of Peron's support, told the workers they "should be calm and resume their work and cooperate in the maintenance of the public services and order."

Both sides emphasized that hostilities only had been "suspended" pending the outcome of negotiations.

The 13-man military committee announced it was taking over after Peron's forced resignation and the clean sweep of his government which followed.

The committee offered to negotiate with the revolutionary leaders "to seek pacification in order to avoid useless bloodshed among brothers."

It also shook up the security system, naming new heads of federal police, national gendarmerie and the coast guard.

Both sides emphasized that hostilities only had been "suspended" pending the outcome of negotiations.

But for the 13-man committee it seemed an empty gesture. Revolutionary leaders negotiated under the comfortable safety of their naval guns which still pointed menacingly at Buenos Aires and the valuable oil installations in nearby Eva Peron (La Plata). From throughout the country came reports of former loyalist leaders surrendering to the victorious rebels.

Mt. Vernon Man Indicted for Firing Into Du Quoin Home

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Doran Kernodle, 47, Mount Vernon, Monday, was indicted on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder by firing five shots at Du Quoin businessman, wounding him.

Kernodle allegedly fired the shots through a window into the bedroom where Roscoe Provart, 67, Du Quoin, was lying on a bed at the home of Mrs. Bernice Crago here last June 24.

Mrs. Crago, who was not in the room, was formerly employed by Provart.

Circuit Judge Ben Eovaldi did not set a date for arraignment of Kernodle after the Jefferson County grand jury returned the indictment. Kernodle's attorney, Jay B. Stringer, said he would ask the court to suppress an alleged confession obtained from Kernodle by police after the shooting.

She was employed as bookkeeper at the Wasson department store in Carrier Mills and had formerly been employed at the Harrisburg Dairy and Southeastern Illinois Gas Co. She was the daughter of the late Lee and Ida Kiser and was born in Gallatin county.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Gaskins funeral chapel and burial will be in Adkins cemetery near Omaha.

Miss Kiser's nearest relatives were cousins, aunts and uncles.

Sears to Hold Formal Opening Of Sales Office

The Sears, Roebuck and Co. catalog sales office in Harrisburg will hold its three-day formal opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday, C. A. Odaffer, Sears field representative, announced today.

Preparations are now being completed for the opening of the new business, which is in the Rose building at 115 North Main street. Mr. Odaffer and Eldon Madding, in charge of store openings, have been in Harrisburg the past several weeks getting the building in readiness for the opening.

Manager of the new store is Jimmy Thomas of Eldorado, who has worked at stores in Harrisburg the past several years. Other employees will be Mrs. Dorothy Starkey of Galatia and Miss Marylyn Werkmeister, Miss Dorothy Fulkerson and Miss Mary Elaine Allen, all of Harrisburg.

At the formal opening, everybody is invited to register without obligation for attendance prizes. First prize will be the choice of an automatic washer, a dryer, television set, 10-foot freezer, refrigerator, or gas or electric range. Second prize will be a $50 allowance on any of the seven appliances and third prize will be a $25 allowance.

Building Remodeled

In addition there will be favors to all attending, which will be hangers for the ladies, yardsticks for the men and balloons for the children.

Bob Mitchell has been the general contractor in remodeling and redecorating the building to suit the needs of Sears. Harrisburg Electric Co. has done the electrical work and Ed Heister the plumbing.

Metal pegboard walls and shelving have been installed with cornice lighting and major and small appliances and some soft lines will be displayed. In the rear of the store are offices and storage space.

Mr. Odaffer said that the credit department would be opened the latter part of October.

No Coffee Breaks For Chicago Plumbers

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago plumbers were told today to stop taking coffee breaks.

Stephen M. Bailey, business manager of Local 130 of the AFL Plumbers Union, sent cards to all local members instructing them that "A plumber's pay is high enough without adding the time wasted in coffee breaks."

Hall, Butler Clash On Whether Eisenhower Will Seek Re-Election

CHICAGO (AP)—The top brass of the Republican and Democratic parties, both meeting in Chicago today, have clashed head-on over whether President Eisenhower will run again for the White House.

GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall said he is basing all his campaign plans on the assumption that it will be "Ike and Nixon" for the Republicans in 1956.

But Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler, holding a simultaneous news conference late Monday, doubted whether the President wants a second term.

"I don't believe he is happy as President," Butler said. "He doesn't appear to be enjoying the responsibility of his office."

Hall and Butler matched predictions as leaders of both parties met to plan their 1956 presidential conventions.

Democrats Sully Farmers

The Democrats also gathered together 15 party farm experts, including two former Agriculture secretaries, to lay the groundwork for what they hope will be a potent farm policy plank next year.

The Hall-Butler clash was practically a face-to-face debate. The two party leaders called their news conferences at the same time in the same hotel (the Conrad Hilton) and commented freely on each other's statements.

Hall predicted Mr. Eisenhower will announce his 1956 plans "pretty well" before the GOP convention at San Francisco.

Complete Jury For 'Wolf Whistle' Murder Trial

SUMNER, Miss. (AP)—A 12-man jury composed of 10 farmers, an insurance salesman and a laborer was selected today to try two white half-brothers for the "wolf whistle" slaying of a Chicago Negro.

The testimony phase of the trial for Roy Bryant, 24, and J. W. Milam, 35, then opened.

Mrs. Mamie Bradley, the grieving mother of Emmett Till, the 14-year-old Negro boy whose body was fished out of a river, arrived at court today. Bryant and Milam were accused of killing young Till for whistling at Bryant's attractive young wife, a spectator at the dramatic proceedings.

The mother was expected to testify for the state that the weighted body taken out of the Tallahatchie River was that of her son. Local authorities here had speculated the body might not be that of the Till youth.

Mrs. Bradley said she had received about 2,000 letters, many "threatening and foul," since her son was killed.

Court deputies did not challenge the slaying victim's mother but men accompanying her into court were given the standard "shake-down" for concealed weapons. Everyone entering the court, Negro and white, was being searched.

Ed Brown, Former Local Resident, Dies at Carbondale

Ed Brown of Carbondale died suddenly following a fatal heart attack this morning. Mr. Brown is the brother of Mrs. Clarence Dameron of Carrier Mills and was about 68 years of age. He was in the trucking business in Carbondale. He and Mrs. Dameron are both former Harrisburg residents. No funeral plans had been made at the time the information reached Harrisburg friends.

Two Women Missionaries Freed by China

Both Presbyterians, Were Teachers In Leper Colonies

HONG KONG (AP)—Two American women missionaries crossed the border to freedom from Communist China today. They said they were so suspicious of their jailers they were almost afraid to accept Red Cross packages.

The missionaries, both Presbyterians who were kept in the same jail for 4 1/2 years, were Sarah Perkins, 63, of New York City and Dorothy Middleton, 42, Cicero, Ill. They taught in leper colonies.

They were the 8th and 9th Americans the Communists announced would be "deported" before "expiration of their terms." Almost all the Americans were charged with some form of "espionage." The two women were charged with "sabotage."

The 10th, Dilmus T. Kanady of Houston, Tex., a Shanghai businessman sentenced to 4 1/2 years by the Reds, was expected at the border Wednesday.

They were the first ten of 41 Americans in Red China listed by the Peiping regime for immediate freeing under terms of an agreement worked out in Geneva conferences. Reports from Shanghai today said some other Americans were making plans to leave soon.

The reports said ten-year-old Emma Angelina Barry, the daughter of an American, would leave Sept. 23 by ship with her mother, a White Russian and not an American citizen. Robert Howard Parker, 82, a retired businessman originally from Philadelphia, will leave at the same time with his Chinese wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard (Cappy) Ricks were reported making arrangements to sail directly from Shanghai to Japan where Ricks has a firm. Their date of departure was not known.

En Stella Dugay, 62, (Sister Theresa), a Catholic nun and a native of New York, is expected to leave in October.

Mrs. Juanita Huang, 51, a native of Mount Olive, Miss., and a Southern Baptist missionary married to a Chinese, was expected to leave "as soon as she winds up her affairs."

Nothing was known in Shanghai about Mrs. Nadeshia M. Romanoff, a regular passport holder for what they hope will be a potent farm policy plank next year.

Harbin Manchuria. Mrs. Romanoff is a naturalized American.

Lawrence Buol, a civilian flier released by the Reds last week, received a passport today from the American consulate and planned to fly to Honolulu Thursday with his wife, Sue, for a few days rest before continuing to his home in Stockton, Calif.

The consulate said it had granted Buol a regular passport but would issue only a one-way passport restricted to direct passage to the United States to Walter Rickett of Seattle, who praised the Red regime when he was freed.

To Elect County ASC Committeemen At City Hall Sept. 27

Paul B. Whitlock, chairman of the Saline County ASC committee, announced today that a convention will be held Tuesday, Sept. 27, at 10 a. m. in the council room of the city hall Harrisburg, for the purpose of electing a Saline County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county committee for the coming year.

70-Year-Old Myrt to Decide Tonight On Continuing in TV $64,000 Contest

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Myrtle Power, a 70-year-old baseball fan currently batting 1,000 in TV's toughest league, steps up to the plate for her 10th swing tonight.

The sprightly charmer from Buford, Ga., has swatted her way through nine queries on CBS-TV's "The $64,000 Question" to run her earnings to $16,000. This evening, "Myrt," as she prefers to be called, can try to double her stake or call a halt to the contest and retire with her winnings.

"I don't know what I'm going to do," says Myrt. "I change my mind four or five times a day. I may go to the program thinking one thing and do another. Last week, I didn't know what I was going to do right up to the time I went on."

Myrt, who is almost as cool in the clutch as one of her favorite ballplayers, Ted Williams, has breezed through the questions thrown at her thus far.

Myrt, a vociferous partisan of the Brooklyn Dodgers, now works for a couple in Roslyn Heights, N. Y., as a nursemaid and housekeeper. "I've been going to a couple of ball games a week," says Myrt. "and when I can't get to the park I watch on TV."

Cool Air to Break Summer's Last Heat Wave

By United Press

Cool air broke a record-breaking heat wave in the Midwest area with the end of summer only three days away.

The cool front spread southeastward across the baking Great Lakes and Midwest, dumping the temperature to 48 degrees at Duluth Minn., and 52 at Lone Rock, Wis.

The last heat wave of summer had set a new record almost every day it lasted in many areas. At Chicago, the 93-degree reading Monday was the highest on record for the date.

Rains accompanied the cool weather in many areas, rinsing Newton, Iowa, with 3 inches of moisture and Chadron, Neb., with 1.05 inches.

It was normally cool in the northern Plains and most of the South and hot in the southern Plains, Gulf Coast, and Florida.

Membership Drive Launched By Concert Ass'n

On Monday evening the board members and member-workers of the Harrisburg Community Concert association met in the educational building of the First Baptist church for a seven o'clock kickoff dinner and program which launched the 1955-56 Community Concert membership drive in this area.

The tables were centered with baskets of fall flowers and placed at each plate were black cardboard silhouettes of performing artists. A prayer of thanks was offered by Roy Staiger.

John Schork, president of the association, opened the business meeting, and presented Mrs. D. H. Hiller, secretary, who stated that the headquarters for the drive would be at Craggs-DeVillax on the corner of Poplar and Vine streets, and that the telephone number was 1390.

Mrs. Joseph M. Hart, general chairman, welcomed new members who were present for the occasion. She announced that the headquarters would be open each day this week until 5 p. m. but requested that the members report their progress to the group by Thursday evening.

Mr. Schork then introduced Mrs. Mabel Roth, Community Concert representative from Canton, Ill., who arrived in Harrisburg yesterday to assist with the campaign. In telling some of the history of Community Concert associations she stated that some thirty years ago a man in Battle Creek, Mich., wished to bring good music to his community but was unable to do so alone because of his means. He did accomplish his ideal by letting the people form the association and buy talent with memberships. This policy is still followed today. Mrs. Roth reported that there are 1490 music associations in America and over 900 are Community Concert associations affiliated with Columbia Artists in New York.

Memberships are $6 for adults and $3 for juniors.

Cities which had been in the path of the storm had rushed to complete hurricane preparations. Damage In Millions

Authorities said damage in North Carolina would amount to "tens of millions of dollars." It was estimated that New Bern, N. C., alone suffered to the extent of 15 million dollars.

North Carolina Gov. Luther H. Hodges, who witnessed the hurricane's force at Morehead City—he called it a "terrifying experience"—asked President Eisenhower to declare the affected section of his state a disaster area. Eastern North Carolina suffered 100 million dollars property damage earlier from hurricanes Connie and Diane.

Hauptmann Addresses Flight Surgeons

Lt. Commander Carl J. Hauptmann, former local doctor, recently gave an acromedical lecture on "Toxic Gases and Vapors in Aircraft" before the flight surgeons of the 6th Naval district at a meeting of the Aviation Safety Council, Southern Medical Section, held in Jacksonville, Fla. Dr. Hauptmann had just previously returned to Key West from a cruise to Halifax, Nova Scotia, aboard the aircraft carrier U. S. S. Valley Forge (CVS-45).

AF Recruiter Explains Task In Lions Address

"Our job is to sell the Air Force to young men, to point out to them the advantages of becoming a member of the Air Force team," M-Sgt. Peter F. Demediuk, Air Force recruiter in this area, stated in discussing Air Force recruiting at Monday night's meeting of the Harrisburg Lions club.

The speaker pointed out that the Air Force recruiting service was only a little more than a year old, but that in its first year the recruiters had met 87 per cent of the quota and "we expect to do better this year," he declared.

The Air Force became a separate branch of the military defense program eight years ago, but even then its recruiting program was in cooperation with the Army. This continued until a year ago when the Air Force and Army each established separate recruiting programs.

Sgt. Demediuk works in a six-county area. The Air Force recruits only men between the ages of 17 and 34 years and he stated there were 4,600 young men in that age group in Saline county, the largest county in the area.

The local office has been open for a year and during that time more than 150 men have been "sold" on the advantages of the Air Force.

Just recently Sgt. Demediuk was given special recognition by the St. Louis recruiting office for outstanding work in the Air Force recruiting program.

Warnings are Lifted Along Eastern Coast

North Carolina, Virginia Areas Hit During Night

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Hurricane Ione swept "well out to sea" today, and the Weather Bureau said the East Coast was out of danger barring a sudden and "radical" change of course.

A special bulletin issued by the Washington Weather Bureau shortly after 9 a. m. CST said the storm was "moving eastward away from the coast." It was at that time about 200 miles east of Norfolk.

Conrad P. Mook, meteorologist in charge of the emergency warning center in Washington, told reporters that it would take a "radical change of course" within the next two or three hours for Ione to present any threat whatever to the East Coast.

Even that theoretical threat should be erased by late afternoon if the storm continues on its present course, he said.

Lower All Warnings

The Weather Bureau lowered all hurricane warnings along the coast.

Ione had lost most of its punch before it put out to sea.

But before swerving out to sea during the night, it struck savagely through North Carolina and Virginia coastal areas, leaving at least two dead and "tens of millions of dollars" of damage in its wake.

For anxious hours, it appeared that the storm, which packed 100 mile an hour winds as it came ashore, would continue its destructive course up the East Coast. Heavily populated New York and southern New England were alerted to stand by for a hard blow.

But the anticipated worst never came. Ione after churning around of Norfolk most of the night headed for the wide open spaces of the Atlantic. Norfolk and the great naval base at nearby Hampton Roads escaped with comparatively little damage.

By early today, the highest winds near the center of the storm were reported to be down to 60 or 70 miles an hour—below full hurricane velocity.

As late as 7 a. m. CST, the Weather Bureau still was warning that the storm might yet veer northward and threaten New England. Hurricane warnings were up at that hour from the Virginia Capes north to Block Island, off the Rhode Island coast.

Hundreds Flee Homes

As Ione smashed into Virginia during the night, many areas were flooded, roads were blocked, trees uprooted, and hundreds of persons were forced to flee their homes.

In Maryland, high tides shoved into Kent Narrows on Chesapeake Bay, forcing 200 fishermen and their families to leave their homes. Baltimore port authorities were unable to take care of all ships seeking refuge and some had to be sent into Chesapeake Bay to ride it out.

Washington, D. C., escaped with mild winds and less than a fifth of an inch of rainfall. The capital was bathed in sunshine this morning.

Cities which had been in the path of the storm had rushed to complete hurricane preparations. Damage In Millions

Authorities said damage in North Carolina would amount to "tens of millions of dollars." It was estimated that New Bern, N. C., alone suffered to the extent of 15 million dollars.

North Carolina Gov. Luther H. Hodges, who witnessed the hurricane's force at Morehead City—he called it a "terrifying experience"—asked President Eisenhower to declare the affected section of his state a disaster area. ## Religion Gains

Editorial By Bruce Biossat
Many times in the years since World War II we have been told by thoughtful men that our problems are at root moral ones. We have brought about great scientific and industrial marvels, but seemingly have lacked the power to control them.

It is contended that greater moral force will supply that power. Morality in Western civilization has been hard pressed to keep pace with the many powerful forces released by the continuing industrial revolution.

If this is truly the need, then the remarkable upsurge of American interest in religion is a hopeful sign. For religion teaches a stern morality.

Newest figures from the National Council of Churches show that more Americans than ever before belong to churches and Sunday schools. Some 60 per cent of the population are church members today, against 49 per cent in 1940 and no more than 16 per cent 100 years ago. Total membership is nearly 97,500,000.

Interest in religion—as gauged by church membership—has been and still is rising faster than the population. The 2,640,000 gain from 1954 to 1955 is a percentage climb of 2.8, against an increase of 1.7 per cent in the population. All the major faiths reflected the increase.

Most authorities are agreed that the swelling tide of church membership indicates a deep hunger among the people for a faith that can serve as a rock of certainty amid the bewildering changes of these times. People appear to be searching eagerly for guidance — and peace of mind.

It is also possible that many realize the moral deficiencies of the age, and are hopeful of fashioning a new moral structure better designed to meet the dilemmas of 1955. Surely church and community authorities recognize that the rise in religious interest presents the church with an unparalleled opportunity to infuse the nation with a fresh moral spirit.

Even without this aspect, the great religious gains are significant. For they demonstrate that in a perplexing time people have the humility and the willingness to look beyond themselves for answers to their biggest problems.

Yet it would be almost impossible to overestimate the value of these gains if they could be translated into the moral force men seem to need to master the great scientific contrivances they have dropped upon a fumbling world.
It must be our great hope that this translation is made.

Misguided Economy

Sen. George Malone, Nevada Republican, says he thinks we ought to cut down on Voice of America propaganda expenditures because from what he has seen of Russia its people aren't likely to revolt against the Communist regime.

It has never been an assumption of our propaganda specialists that the Soviet Union was ready for rebellion. In fact, in our broadcasts and other propaganda efforts not only to Russia but to other Red countries, we have specifically avoided any attempt to incite revolt.

The theory has been that the Red army's control—or its nearness—would foredoom such an uprising to futile bloodshed.

But that does not mean it is futile to try to spread the truth. In some future time the circumstances of power in Communist lands may alter. If and when that happens, those people who are armed with the truth will be better equipped to strike for freedom.

It is our sensible task to help arm them for that moment, no matter how distant it may seem to Senator Malone or anybody else.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Shipment Of Arms To Arabs
Cloaked In Secrecy; Dulles
Will Not Permit Publication
Of Arms Information; Secret
Letter From Maryland Arms
Broker Proposes Sale To Egyptian Embassy.

WASHINGTON. — An ingenious deal by which the Arabs would buy the same guns now used by Israeli troops, then capture Israeli ammunition and fire it back at them, has been proposed to the Egyptian embassy by a munitions broker in near-by Maryland.

The broker has written letters to the military attaché of the Egyptian embassy trying to sell a long list of arms ranging from 1,800 British Sten guns to 140 German machine guns.

It has been known for some time that arms have been leaving the United States for the Arab countries, and some of them have been supplied by the U. S. government. However, Secretary Dulles has a firm rule that though arms shipments from this country must be licensed, the amounts cannot be made public. Thus, private arms brokers can operate under the complete protection of government secrecy.

COONSKIN CHAP IN NORWAY

Senator Kefauver, Tennessee's modern Davy Crockett, hasn't started his campaign for 1956 presidential nomination, but his bandwagon already is rolling overseas, judging by the reception he received during his trip through Europe.

Estes was greeted by big turnouts of admirers in every country he visited. Newspapers front-paged his picture, told about his crime-busting record. People on the streets shouted: "There's Senator Kefauver."

The Tennesseean shook hands all around, joked to a colleague: "It would be wonderful if these people had absentee voting privileges in the United States."

When he visited the royal palace in Oslo, Kefauver and his

Local Metropolitan Group Attends Springfield Meeting

D. H. Hiller, manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company's detached office, and eight other local representatives of the company, were in Springfield today for a conference with Frederic W. Eckler, president, and other officials of the company.

Mr. Eckler, who became president of Metropolitan two years ago, is on one of a series of "get acquainted" trips that will enable him to meet personally the members of the company's field force of more than 22,000 representatives in the United States and Canada.

The Metropolitan, the nation's largest financial institution, has over $4,592,492,000 of insurance in force in Illinois. Last year the company paid out over $78,289,000 in benefits and issued $314,377,000 of new insurance in the state.

Mr. Eckler is accompanied on his visit to Springfield by C. J.
North and E. C. McDonald, vice presidents; W. S. J. Shepherd, second vice president and field personnel officer; Douglas S. Craig, second vice-president in ordinary insurance; William J. Barrett, company secretary; and R. F. Kil-lion and Karl H. Kreder, third vice-presidents.

In addition to Mr. Hiller, those in Springfield for today's conference are: William L. Zimmer, J.
Fred Wunderlich and Charles M.
Miles of Harrisburg; Cecil Towle and Hubert J. Dillard of Eldorado; Guy C. Hill of Shawneetown; John L. Noonan of Carrier Mills and Edgar B. Dickey of Carmi.

companions were met by the acting regent, Crown Prince Olav, who said he had been wanting to meet the Tennesseean for a long time.

"Judging by the way he has been welcomed in your country, maybe you'd like to organize a "Coonskin" club for Estes," someone suggested to Olav.

"Yes, I'm thinking about starting an Oslo chapter," replied the crown prince of Norway.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

Senator McCarthy threatened to sue the Washington Star last year for its story on its tax problems.
But McCarthy let the deadline for filing suit pass last week — without a peep. One reason why the dockworkers' strike was called off was the low state of union funds. Capt. William Bradley, head of the Longshoremen, secretly called on John L. Lewis and Dave Beck of the Teamsters Union for financial support but got nowhere. After that, he called off the strike. . . . The American embassy has tipped off the State Department that West German Chancellor Adenauer had some secret conversations with Premier Bulganin last week which he has not told the United States about. The embassy has been unable to learn what they are, but believes they involved the future of East Germany. Ambassador Conant in Bonn has now been asked to see if he can uncover this mystery. . . .
Despite the press ballyhoo, the atomic submarine cannot go around the world underwater. She has to come up not for fuel, but for food. Navy experts are trying to pack more canned food into less space, so the atomic sub can make the complete trip under water.

Why settle for less when Mountain-Grown Folger's gives you

MORE FLAVOR PER CUP

Folger's skillful blending and roasting of nature's most flavorful coffees makes the difference!

Folger's, you see, starts with only the choicest coffees... Mountain-Grown coffees that are naturally richer, heartier, more flavorful.

They blend and prepare these finer coffees in an unique way, with their century-old Folger
"touch" that produces not only a richer flavor, but a truly distinctive flavor no other coffee can match. And because Folger's blends to a flavor, not to a formula, you can be sure of the same rewarding goodness cup after cup, day after day.

Why not serve your family the one coffee that over the years has been specially made to give you more flavor, more coffee satisfaction in every cup. Serve them Mountain-Grown Folger's. We think that once you've tried Folger's, you'll never be satisfied with anything less.

SO MUCH RICHER IN FLAVOR YOU ARE URGED TO USE 1/4 LESS THAN WITH LESSER FLAVORED BRANDS

IT'S MOUNTAIN GROWN...

Reach Compromise In Talks Between U. S., Red China

GENEVA (AP)—The United States and Communist China reached a compromise on bringing political issues and the Western trade embargo into their high-level talks here today.

U. S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson agreed to Red Chinese demands to move on to other points in exchange for Peiping Ambassador Wang Pingnan's agreement not to consider the exchange of prisoners issue closed, diplomatic sources said.

Item one on the two-part agenda of the talks which started Aug. 16 was the exchange of nationals held in each country. Item two dealt with "other practical matters" at issue between the two nations.

Peiping has agreed to free some 41 Americans it holds, and the U. S. has said that all Chinese who wish to do so are free to leave America for the China mainland. But the U. S. had insisted that the Chinese Reds complete their release of Americans before taking up other issues.

However, a brief official communique said Johnson and Wang "exchanged information" today on prisoner release, and then "exchanged views" on item two.

Thus, for the first time since the discussions started, trade and political issues were considered, marking a turning point in the conference.

Eisenhower Asked To Support Roads For Bicyclists

CHICAGO (AP)—Rep. Sidney R. Yates (R-Ill.) wrote President Eisenhower today on behalf of a constituent who believes special roads should be built for bicyclists.

Yates wrote the President on behalf of Morris Wulbert, who says it's no longer safe for a bicyclist to venture forth on the public highways.

Mr. Eisenhower has called a conference for Sept. 27 and 28 to seek methods of interesting more of the nation's youth in active athletic participation.

Yates asked Mr. Eisenhower to place Wulbert's proposal before the conference.

Wulbert, in an earlier letter to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, chairman of the National Highway Program Advisory Committee, estimated that there are more than 30 million bicycles in use in the United States.

He proposed a network of bicycle roadways leading to points of "historic interest and scenic beauty."

U. S. to Oppose Soviet Move to Get China in UN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States rallied firm support today to turn back any Soviet attempt to give Communist China a United Nations seat.

An American spokesman expressed confidence that the United States and its allies would defeat the perennial Soviet resolution to seat Red China when the General Assembly opens its 10th annual session today.

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was prepared to counter a Soviet resolution expected to be introduced by Russian Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov.

Britain announced it would support the U. S. stand and America's other allies were expected to follow suit.

The first regular order of business was the election of an assembly president. Jose Maza of Chile was slated to get the post with only perfunctory opposition from the five nation Soviet block which, if it follows precedent, will vote for a representative of one of its members.

Aside from Red China, the contest between the Philippines and Poland for the Security Council seat now held by Turkey was expected to spark East-West fireworks. The U. S. supports the Philippines while Russia backs Communist Poland for the seat.

Begin Talks on Pay Demands By Rail Workers

CHICAGO (UP)—Wage negotiations were scheduled today on a 25-cent hourly raise asked for the 80,000 non-operating railroad workers throughout the country.

Meanwhile, a federal mediator worked to head off a strike threatened by an operating union against the nation's Class I railroads.

Eleven non-operating unions, including the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks and the Order of Telegraphers, were represented in the new negotiations.

A demand for a 25-cent raise previously had been served on the railroads individually. The last non-operating negotiations closed Aug. 21, 1954, with agreement on a contributory health and welfare plan that calls for $3.40 monthly contributions from the employer and the employee.

In the operating negotiations, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers has threatened to strike. Leverett Edwards, chairman of the National Railway Mediation Board, has been working separately with each side in an effort to bring agreement.

Other operating unions involved in current wage talks are the AFL Switchmen's Union and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. The total membership of all three operating unions runs to 245,000.

ERIE, Pa. (UP)—Two Air Force fliers, attached to the weather group at an Ohio Air Force base, were killed Monday when one of the two engines of their C-45 aircraft caught fire shortly after a take-off from Port Erie Airport.

The Air Force identified the victims as Capt. Richard W. Lane, 31, Erie, chief weather forecaster at the Wright-Patterson base, and Lt. Robert H. Gingles, 25, Ashland, Wis.

The two airmen were making a routine round-trip flight from the Dayton, Ohio, base to Erie to log required flying time of four hours a month.

XXVI

It was just past noon that Virgil Earp, coming out of Hafford's Saloon where he'd gone to try and slow Doc down, saw Ike Clanton and Tom McLowry riding up Allen Street from the south. He jumped back inside the doors for they hadn't seen him.

The two outlaw horsemen were heading for the O. K. Stable down the street, and Virg was seeing something which gave him an idea. What he saw was to forecast the first shot fired in a street war that's still talked about wherever old westerners get together with five minutes to spare for thinking back to the smoky days. But it's mighty safe to say that Virg had no thoughts of making history when he drifted back through Hafford's and down the alley to the rear of the O. K. Stable.

All he saw was that Ike was wearing two guns and riding with his rifle across the horn of his saddle.

And all he thought was that he didn't cotton to his and Wyatt's local rules and regulations being fractured right out in the open like that.

Ike and Tom rode their horses on into the stable, being old hands enough not to bother climbing down out front to lead them in. Both of them were still blinking to get the bright noon sun out of their eyes when Virg's pleasant greeting hit like a bucket of ice water.

"Morning, boys, I'll just take the artillery, Ike. Easy does it, now. All the way around, careful."

Ike should have recognized the family draw but apparently didn't for he came all the way around with his saddlelegun still in his hands.

Virg never gave Ike's kind the breaks that Wyatt was in the habit of giving them. When Virg called a man from behind like that, he did it with his Peacemaker already out and in hand. During the time Ike squandered on his turn-around, all he had to do was reach out and tap him.

Ike stiffened as though somebody had slapped a hot mustard plaster on his bare backside. He dropped his gun and stood there with his head buzzing.

"Behave yourself, Tom," Virg warned his companion. McLowry wasn't armed and there wasn't anything else he could do about him just yet. "Me and Ike are going to have a little talk with Judge Barrett."

Ira Henry Barrett, the local magistrate, fined Ike $25 and set him scot-free. But Virg had Ike's guns and didn't linger to argue the verdict. Fact was, he was walking into Wyatt's office down the street before Ike ever got out.

He hadn't any more than given Wyatt the first of the good news when brother Morgan was stalking in from over on Allen Street with the rest of it. "You think you've got something with Ike and Tom, Virg?" He put the quick family grin back of it. "I just turned up three big potatoes in my patch!"

"How big?" snapped Wyatt. "Medium," drawled Morg. "Frank McLowry and Billy Clanton, along with nether bad spud I thought was put down in the root cellar for the winter."

Wyatt eyed him, feeling the slow rise of the excitement beginning to come up in him now.

Virg's word that Ike and Tom had blundered into town had hit him good. Then, Morg's report that Frank McLowry and Billy Clanton had tailed them in came like a second jolt.

"The suspense is killing me, pardner."

"It's apt to, brother," Morg said it just as dry. "They've got Billy Claiborne out."

Young Claiborne had been doing a thirty-day stretch in the Charleston jail for disturbing the peace by shooting one Jim Hickey. Hickey's big mistake had been insisting, more than twice, that Claiborne let him buy him a drink.

"Likely," was all Wyatt said, "we'll need to be careful."

They went out into Toughnut, past their saddled horses, past the silent courthouse, past the suddenly empty intersection beyond it, walking three abreast and dead-march slow, tall and lonely and frock-coat-black against the October sun.

They held up at the corner of Fourth and Allen, making silent note of the fact that the main stem had not yet taken on the deserted look of Toughnut.

"Looks like we've beat Ike back from the courthouse by a couple of minutes," observed Morg laconically.

"I don't like it," it was Virg objecting.

Virg had been a peace officer longer than any of them, was the senior brother in years, knew his way around in a guntalk as well as any man alive.

"How so, Virg?" he asked quietly.

"Too many bets to cover. I'd

New Gov't Must Meet Three Requirements

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will recognize a new Argentine government when it meets three basic requirements, officials said today.

They said any new government must be in full control of the country, must have general support of the people and must be prepared to honor its international debts and obligations.

The State Department declined any official comment on the recognition issue, however. A spokesman said there were a great many reports pouring in from Buenos Aires and that he did not think he should discuss the situation from Washington.

The department also said that all Americans in Argentina apparently are safe.

First Snow Hits Eisenhower Hideaway

FRASER, Colo., (AP)—The first snow of the season rimmed President Eisenhower's Rocky Mountain hideaway today with a vista of glistening snow-capped peaks.

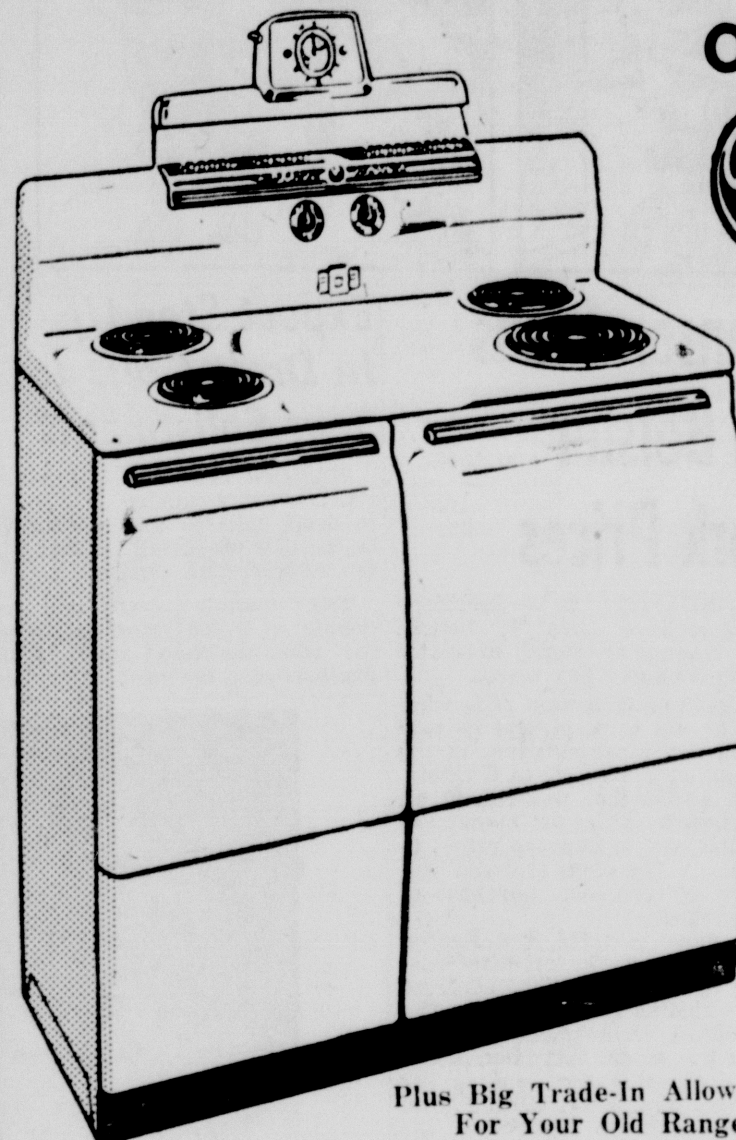

A heavy rain during the night drenched the mountain valley in which the President is staying at the Byers Peak ranch of Denver businessman Aksel Nielsen and Carl Norgren. The temperature dipped to 32.

Benson Plans To Bolster Pork Prices

WASHINGTON AP — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson plans "immediate steps" to bolster rapidly declining hog prices.

He gave no indication as to what steps he has in mind. But he said he will call representatives of the hog and pork industry to Washington to advise the department on "how best to utilize the machinery available and to improve prices to farmers." The plans probably will involve government purchase of pork products.

The move was the first Benson has made since he promised last week to do something concrete about skidding farm prices. The Agriculture Department reported earlier this month that farm prices have declined 4 per cent so far this year. Hog prices led the drop. Benson said he "instructed the Department of Agriculture to take immediate steps to the use of appropriate machinery to improve the hog price situation."

"These plans will supplement the efforts already underway to cooperate with and coordinate a pork promotion campaign now being so successfully carried on by the whole industry, from the farm to the retail store," he said.

Eisenhower Asks Pressure for Better Roads; AAA Head Hits 'Crackdowns'

WASHINGTON AP — President Eisenhower urged motorists today to put pressure on Congress for better highways.

He did so in a message to the 53rd annual convention of the American Automobile Assn.

Mr. Eisenhower asked the 1,200 delegates "to speak up again and again for prompt action" by Congress "on a highway system adequate for modern living... a modern road system is one of our great national needs."

Mr. Eisenhower's original proposal for a multi-billion highway construction program, financed by special bonds, was sidetracked in the last session of Congress. The issue is certain to have high priority in the next session.

AAA President Andrew J. Sordani of Wilkes Barre, Pa., warned the motor club delegates that new highway plans could be endangered by political groups and private interests "which want the roads but do not want to pay for them."

Sordani also said "the spirit of crackdown is abroad in the land" in enforcement of traffic rules.

"Helicopters hover over the road, unmarked police cars and cops not in uniform lie in wait," he said. "Over a thousand radar and other speed detection devices line our major roads. Fee-splitting constables and justices of the peace make small communities potential traffic traps."

"We must work for the rule of reason and fight to the last ditch against unjustified crackdowns which, in the final analysis, do more harm than good," he said.

Bull Dogs Prepare to Play Marion Wildcats Friday Night

Five South Seven Teams Win Opening Football Contests

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, victorious in their opening grid tilt against Murphysboro here last week, prepared to invade Marion to battle with the unexpectedly strong Wildcats Friday night.

Marion in its open powered to a 40-0 win over Carterville with fullback Joe Guiley driving for three touchdowns, Jack Anderson going over for two and Harold Short making the final tally on a quarterback sneak.

The Wildcats, according to information received, are better than had been anticipated by their new coach, Wendell Starrick, who was mentor at Johnston City for years. Big Marion Line

Starrick, who has high hopes of bringing Marion out of the grid doldrums, had this to say before the opening game:

"I don't know what kind of a season we'll have, but the situation is better than I expected. Who would have dreamed we could put a 185 or 190-pound line on the field?"

Marion has a big line and a small, fast backfield. Guiley, a 160-pound junior fullback, set a new 50-yard record in a frosh-soph meet at Springfield.

Here are some of the linemen: Sam Brown, 185, and John Lee, 195, at ends; Bob May, 200, and Ron Cash, 220, at tackles; Bob Kleinman, 190, and Jim Reeves, 225-pound transfer from New Mexico, at guards. That's bigger than Harrisburg linemen, who average 176 pounds.

Five South Seven Teams Win

The South Seven did all right in its opening games, winning five, losing one and tying one as all teams met non-loop foes.

Besides the Harrisburg 13-6 win over Murphysboro and Marion's 40-0 trouncing of Carterville, Mt. Vernon walloped Chester, 34 to 0. Herrin trounced Zeigler, 42-0 and Benton muzzled the Carmi Bull Dogs, 21-14. West Frankfort was held to a 6 to 6 tie by Carbondale and Centralia was beaten at Flora, 21 to 12.

Mt. Vernon looked more convincing than in years as the Rams downed Chester, Jim Irwin, 145 pounder, led the Rams off a singling formation and the offensive was effective.

The fast-charging Mt. Vernon line was the big factor, however, as it made Chester ball carriers fumble eight times. Chester netted 64 yards from scrimmage and of these 43 were by rushing.

The Rams made 15 first downs to three for Chester and gained 265 yards from scrimmage. Mt. Vernon completed four out of 10 passes for 193 yards.

Everybody got in on the act as Herrin routed Zeigler, 42-0, six men getting in on the touchdown scoring. Four of the six touchdowns came on the ground, two on passes. Charles Hamilton made four placements for extra point and

Rangers Look Good

Herrin made 10 first downs to three for Zeigler, 269 yards rushing to 84, and 122 yards passing to nine.

Carmi has been beaten only twice in 22 games and Benton has done the trick both times. Last Friday night the Rangers stayed on the ground all the way, not trying a pass, and looked good especially on defense. The Rangers played without their star fullback, Ed Fredette, sidelined following an appendectomy.

Frankfort came back in the last frame to score a touchdown and tie the count after Carbondale put across a tally in the third quarter. The Terriers made their td when Russ Martin, Abe Martin's boy, kept the ball from his T-formation quarterback post, spun and went over tackle. Frankfort tied the count when Dick Doty went over the goal line on a quick opener.

Centralia had seven regulars sidelined for missing practice as the Orphans bowed to Flora. However, it was reported that some of the younger boys looked so good in the opener that some regulars will have a job getting back their posts.

Yankees Seek Quick End To Pennant Race; Hope to Sweep Tilts with Senators

By United Press

The New York Yankees aimed today for a quick end to the American league pennant race, serene in the knowledge that neither the Cleveland Indians nor Hurricane Ione can do much about it.

The Yankees' immediate objective was a three-game sweep of the Washington Senators—a feat which would clinch Casey Stengel's sixth flag in seven years should the Indians lose their two-game series with the Chicago White Sox.

In Chicago, A.L. President Will Harridge assured all the interested parties that Hurricane Ione can't give anyone an unfair advantage even if the Yankee-Senator series becomes disrupted. Harridge announced that any postponed games having a bearing on the race would be played after the season.

Out For A Sweep

With this knowledge, Stengel was sending Don Larsen and his two star southpaws, 17-game winner Whitey Ford and 16-game winner Tommy Byrne, out for a sweep in Washington.

The Yankees were theoretically crippled by the loss of centerfielder Mickey Mantle and shortstop Phil Rizzuto as well as Bill Skowron's broken toe but once again Stengel's bench strength should be adequate to meet the emergency. A Yankee outfield of Elston Howard, Irv Noren and Hank Bauer is probably as good as any other in the league. Gerry Coleman fills in adequately for Rizzuto and Joe Collins has been more effective than Skowron in recent weeks anyhow.

At Chicago, the Indians start their series with the White Sox tonight striving to snap a four-game losing streak but they'll be running into two of the toughest pitchers in the circuit for them to beat. It'll be Billy Pierce tonight and Jack Harshman Wednesday. Lopez Undecided

Manager Al Lopez said he would pitch either 16-game winner Early Wynn or Herb Score, the rookie strikeout king, tonight.

Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' brilliant young shortstop, set his second major league record of the season Monday night in one of the two games played. Banks, who earlier set a new mark for homers by a shortstop in one year, hit his fifth grand slam homer of the campaign although the St. Louis Cardinals won out in the 12th inning, 6-5, on a homer by Rip Repulski.

Rookie Bud Black pitched a six-hitter for his first victory as the Detroit Tigers beat the Kansas City Athletics, 4-0, in the other game.

Looking AT Sports

By BILL MELTON

Friday about 6 p. m. I had just sat down for supper with the family and the telephone rang. Modene, the oldest daughter answered and said "It's for you, Daddy." When I answered a football fan asked, "Say, Bill, has Harrisburg beat Murphysboro in the past ten years?" I said "Yes," then the fan asked, "What year and by what score?" That I didn't know. Before I completed supper the above happened two more times. Turned out some guys had up a bet, but I didn't know who was winner or loser.

Monday morning Tim T. and I spent about an hour looking thru The Daily Register files, checking football scores for the past several years. Seems that Tim's supper was eaten between phone calls too, Friday.

Went back to 1945 and drew a loss there as it seems Harrisburg resumed its series with Murphysboro in 1946.

That first game of a long, hard fought series resulted in a 6-6 tie. In 1947 Murphysboro won 13-0 and in 1948 the score was Murphy 13, Harrisburg 12. Each team scored 13 points in 1949.

Harrisburg's first win over Murphysboro came in 1950, 13-6. Harrisburg TDs came on a pass from Bob Conover to Bill Herrmann and on a smash by Val Gribble.

The following year, 1951, was Harrisburg's most one-sided victory, 19-0. In that game Bill Cusic was pulled into the backfield for one play and went for a TD. Floyd Shewmake passed to Jim Zimmer for another and Dick Griffiths went 30 yards for another 6-point-er.

Scores in other years—1952, Murphysboro 7, Harrisburg 0; 1953, Murphysboro 12, Harrisburg 7; 1954, Murphysboro 7, Harrisburg 0.

And in case you don't remember, last Friday night's score was Harrisburg 13, Murphysboro 6.

Bull Pups Beat Eaglets, 18-7, In First Tilt

The Harrisburg Bull Pups opened their 1955 grid season Monday night with an 18-7 victory over the Eldorado Eaglets. The game was played at Eldorado.

Harrisburg gained the victory by completely dominating play in the first and third quarters. The Pups scored one TD in the opening period and two others in the third. Don Biggs, husky, fleet-footed sophomore fullback, carried for all three Harrisburg touchdowns.

Eldorado's scoring came in the final fram, with Feaquay carrying for the TD and then racing over for the extra point.

Harrisburg took the opening kickoff and marched down field for a TD. The kickoff was taken on the 13-yard line, but a penalty set the ball back to the eight. From there the Bull Pups put together a drive that carried all the way, with six first downs being accounted for during the rush. Biggs scored from the 15-yard line.

Eldorado took over in the second period and controlled the game, but failed to score. In this quarter the Eaglets had six first-and-ten to none for Harrisburg, but a scoring opportunity was lost on a long yardage loss due to a fumble.

Harrisburg came roaring back in the third quarter and scored in a hurry.

Eldorado took the kick off, lost 12 yards in three plays and dropped back to punt. Yates, Harrisburg end, crashed through to block the punt and the Pups had the ball only five yards from a score. Biggs cracked the Eldorado line for the TD.

Again Harrisburg kicked. After Eldorado picked up a first down to take the ball to near midfield, the Eaglets fumbled and the ball was recovered for Harrisburg by Simpson on the 42 yard line. After a series of plays, in which Harrisburg gains were offset by penalties Bob Clark connected with Don Biggs on a pass that covered 49 yards and scored the Pups' third TD.

Eldorado's only successful scoring drive began midway in the last quarter from the 26-yard line. A 15-yard penalty gave the Eaglets a first down, then Justice connected with Fowler for a 36-yard pass, then hit Willis with another pass and the ball was on the two. Feaquay then went over to score and came back to run for the extra point to end scoring for the night.

Next Monday night the Bull Pups will meet Marion at Taylor Field and Eldorado will entertain the Carbondale "B" squad.

Starters last night—Harrisburg: Logan and Yates ends, Hassett and D. Martin tackles, Aldridge and Endsley guards, Buchanan center, Clark quarterback, Price and Stone halfbacks, and Biggs fullback; Eldorado: Willis and Fowler ends, McMahon and Stevens tackles, Wood and Goodley guards, Poole center, Justice quarterback, Feaquay and Tosh halfbacks and Reasons fullback.

Officials were Bishop, Haile and Kingston, all of Eldorado.

Stars Defeat Grayville, 13-12, For 13th Victory

The Harrisburg Stars came from behind in the 9th inning Sunday afternoon to win their 13th game of the season, defeating Grayville 13-12.

Five runs clattered across home plate in the last of the ninth to give the Stars the victory. A double by Don Smith was the big blow in the victory rally.

"Buzz" Kennedy started on the mound for the Stars, but was relieved in the sixth by Shewmake, who received credit for the win, his third in a row. Clark was the starter for Grayville and was relieved by Tate in the ninth with the tying and winning runs on base so Clark was the loser. Humes, caught for Harrisburg, and McComas was the Grayville receiver.

Grayville scored four runs in the first, two in the third, one in the sixth, four in the seventh and one in the eighth.

Harrisburg had two runs in the first. K. Nolen hit the first pitch for a long homer, Karnes tripled and scored on a single by Smith.

The Stars scored again in the third on a home run by Karnes, picked up three in the fourth on a double by Don Smith, a walk to Kennedy, K. Nolen's double and a sacrifice fly by Ziegler. Two more crossed in the sixth when Shewmake was safe on an error, K. Nolen tripled and Karnes lifted a sacrifice fly.

Then came Harrisburg's big ninth.

The Stars will practice Friday and play at Golconda Sunday.

Marciano, Archie Moore Bout Is Postponed

NEW YORK — The Rocky Marciano - Archie Moore heavyweight title fight was postponed for 24 hours today because of Hurricane Ione.

In view of weather forecasts calling for strong winds and heavy rain for the New York area, promoter James D. Norris of the International Boxing Club announced the postponement.

The fight now will be held, weather permitting, at Yankee Stadium Wednesday night. However, the fight, which was scheduled to start at 8:30 p. m. CST tonight, will not start until 8:45 p. m. CST Wednesday because of broadcasting complications.

Should another postponement be necessary, the fight will be staged Thursday night.

The 24-hour postponement came as another frustration and perhaps a costly one for Moore, the long-touted, 38-year-old challenger who figured to be bothered more by the waiting than the placid Marciano.

Promoter Jim Norris was uncertain how much a one-day wash-out would hurt the gate. He had expected at least $750,000 from 50,000 fans. The advance sale approximated $600,000, and he figured additionally that at least $50,000 worth of tickets already had been sold in outside consignments.

WEBQ Signs Contract To Broadcast '56 Cardinal Games

Radio Station WEBQ — AM and FM of Harrisburg will again carry the broadcasts of all St. Louis Cardinal games, at home and away, during the 1956 season. It was announced today by Anheuser-Busch, Inc., sponsor of the broadcasts.

The play-by-play will again be handled by Harry Caray, who will be back for his 12th year of Cardinal broadcasts. Caray's sidekicks again will be Joe Garagiola, former catcher for the Cardinals and other major league clubs, and sportscaster Jack Buck, who will be in his third season of Red Bird broadcasts.

The trio will get a running start on the coming season, beginning the schedule of broadcasts, as in the past, with the Cardinals' spring training games in Florida. In signing a contract to carry the '56 games, WEBQ-AM and FM remained a part of the largest baseball network in the country covering the games of one team. The Cardinal network is made up of more than 100 stations in 10 states.

States in which Cardinal games are heard are Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Tennessee and Mississippi.

Benson Plans To Bolster Pork Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson plans "immediate steps" to bolster rapidly-declining hog prices.

He gave no indication as to what steps he has in mind. But he said he will call representatives of the hog and pork industry to Washington to advise the department on "how best to utilize the machinery available and to improve prices to farmers." The plans probably will involve government purchase of pork products.

The move was the first Benson has made since he promised last week to do something concrete about skidding farm prices. The Agriculture Department reported earlier this month that farm prices have declined 4 per cent so far this year. Hog prices led the drop.

Benson said he "instructed the Department of Agriculture to take immediate steps to the use of appropriate machinery to improve the hog price situation."

"These plans will supplement the efforts already underway to cooperate with and coordinate a pork promotion campaign now being so successfully carried on by the whole industry, from the farm to the retail store," he said.

"Two years ago we faced a similar price situation on beef," Benson said. "Our efforts to stabilize the beef industry have greatly increased beef consumption. We are determined to make a careful appraisal of the possible need for similar direct actions . . . to help hog producers."

Eisenhower Asks Pressure for Better Roads; AAA Head Hints 'Crackdowns'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower urged motorists today to put pressure on Congress for better highways.

He did so in a message to the 53rd annual convention of the American Automobile Assn.

Mr. Eisenhower asked the 1,200 delegates "to speak up again and again for prompt action" by Congress "on a highway system adequate for modern living . . . a modern road system is one of our great national needs."

Mr. Eisenhower's original proposal for a multi-billion highway construction program, financed by special bonds, was sidetracked in the last session of Congress. The issue is certain to have high priority in the next session.

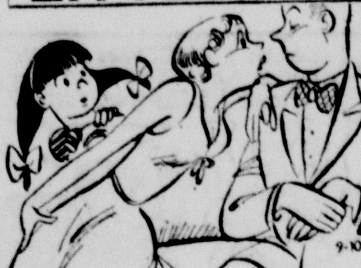

AAA President Andrew J. Sordani of Wilkes Barre, Pa., warned the motor club delegates that new highway plans could be endangered by political groups and private interests "which want the roads but do not want to pay for them."

Sordani also said "the spirit of crackdown is abroad in the land" in enforcement of traffic rules.

"Helicopters hover over the road, unmarked police cars and cops not in uniform lie in wait," he said. "Over a thousand radar and other speed detection devices line our major roads. Fees-splitting constables and justices of the peace make small communities potential traffic traps."

"We must work for the rule of reason and fight to the last ditch against unjustified crackdowns which, in the final analysis, do more harm than good," he said.

Texas Eastern lends a hand to Ivory Soap

TEXAS EASTERN SERVES THE COMPANIES THAT SERVE YOU

Natural gas fires this giant hydrogenation tower at Procter & Gamble's Port Ivory plant. This soap manufacturer is supplied natural gas by The New York and Richmond Gas Company, a customer of Texas Eastern.

Texas Eastern transports natural gas via pipelines from the Southwest for use at Procter & Gamble's Staten Island plant where famous Ivory soap is manufactured. In the production of this soap, natural gas is used to fire the giant hydrogenation tower from which hydrogen is recovered. Hydrogen is the element that preserves the purity of Ivory and gives the soap its needed body and firmness. Like many other products used in your home today, Ivory soap is more economically made because of an abundant supply of economical—efficient—and clean natural gas.

Bull Dogs Prepare to Play Marion Wildcats Friday Night

Five South Seven Teams Win Opening Football Contests

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, victorious in their opening grid tilt against Murphysboro here last week, prepared to invade Marion to battle with the unexpectedly strong Wildcats Friday night.

Marion in its opener powered to a 40-0 win over Carterville with fullback Joe Gully driving for three touchdowns, Jack Anderson going over for two and Harold Short making the final tally on a quarterback sneak.

The Wildcats, according to information received, are better than had been anticipated by their new coach, Wendell Starrick, who was mentor at Johnston City for years.

Starrick, who has high hopes of bringing Marion out of the grid doldrums, had this to say before the opening game:

"I don't know what kind of a season we'll have, but the situation is better than I expected. Who would have dreamed we could put a 185 or 190-pound line on the field?"

Marion has a big line and a small, fast backfield. Gully, a 160-pound junior fullback, set a new 50-yard record in a frosh-soph meet at Springfield.

Here are some of the linemen: Sam Brown, 185, and John Lee, 195, at ends; Bob May, 200, and Ron Cash, 220, at tackles; Bob Kleinman, 190, and Jim Reyes, 225-pound transfer from New Mexico, at guards. That's bigger than Harrisburg linemen, who average 176 pounds.

Five South Seven Teams Win

The South Seven did all right in its opening games, winning five, losing one and tying one as all teams met non-league foes.

Besides the Harrisburg 13-6 win over Murphysboro and Marion's 40-0 trouncing of Carterville, Mt. Vernon walloped Chester, 34 to 0. Heron trounced Zeigler, 42-0 and Benton muzzled the Carmi Bull Dogs, 21-14. West Frankfort was held to a 6 to 6 tie by Carbondale and Centralia was beaten at Flora, 21 to 12.

Mt. Vernon looked more convincing than in years as the Rams downed Chester. Jim Irwin, 145 pounder, led the Rams off a single-wing formation and the offense was effective.

The fast-charging Mt. Vernon line was the big factor, however, as it made Chester ball carriers fumble eight times. Chester netted 64 yards from scrimmage and of these 43 were by rushing.

The Rams made 15 first downs to three for Chester and gained 265 yards from scrimmage. Mt. Vernon completed four out of 10 passes for 193 yards.

Everybody got in on the act as Heron routed Zeigler, 42-0, six men getting in on the touchdown scoring. Four of the six touchdowns came on the ground, two on passes. Charles Hamilton made four placements for extra point and the Tigers made an additional two on a safety.

Rangers Look Good

Herrin made 10 first downs to three for Zeigler, 269 yards rushing to 84, and 122 yards passing to nine.

Carmi has been beaten only twice in 22 games and Benton has done the trick both times. Last Friday night the Rangers stayed on the ground all the way, not trying a pass, and looked good especially on defense. The Rangers played without their star fullback, Ed Fredette, sidelined following an appendectomy.

Frankfort came back in the last frame to score a touchdown and tie the count after Carbondale put across a tally in the third quarter. The Terriers made their td when Russ Martin, Abe Martin's boy, kept the ball from his T-formation quarterback post, spun and went over tackle. Frankfort tied the count when Dick Doty went over the goal line on a quick opener.

Centralia had seven regulars sidelined for missing practice as the Orphans bowed to Flora. However, it was reported that some of the younger boys looked so good in the opener that some regulars will have a job getting back their posts.

Yankees Seek Quick End To Pennant Race; Hope to Sweep Tilts with Senators

By United Press

The New York Yankees aimed today for a quick end to the American league pennant race, serene in the knowledge that neither the Cleveland Indians nor Hurricane Ione can do much about it.

The Yankees' immediate objective was a three-game sweep of the Washington Senators—a feat which would clinch Casey Stengel's sixth flag in seven years should the Indians lose their two-game series with the Chicago White Sox.

In Chicago, A.L. President Will Harridge assured all the interested parties that Hurricane Ione can't give anyone an unfair advantage even if the Yankee-Senator series becomes disrupted. Harridge announced that any postponed games having a bearing on the race would be played after the season.

Out For A Sweep

With this knowledge, Stengel was sending Don Larsen and his two star southpaws, 17-game winner Whitey Ford and 16-game winner Tommy Byrne, out for a sweep in Washington.

The Yankees were theoretically crippled by the loss of centerfielder Mickey Mantle and shortstop Phil Rizzuto as well as Bill Skowron's broken toe but once again Stengel's bench strength should be adequate to meet the emergency. A Yankee outfield of Elston Howard, Irv Noren and Hank Bauer is probably as good as any other in the league. Gerry Coleman fills in adequately for Rizzuto and Joe Collins has been more effective than Skowron in recent weeks anyhow.

At Chicago, the Indians start their series with the White Sox tonight striving to snap a four-game losing streak but they'll be running into two of the toughest pitchers in the circuit for them to beat. It'll be Billy Pierce tonight and Jack Harshman Wednesday.

Lopez Undecided

Manager Al Lopez said he would pitch either 16-game winner Early Wynn or Herb Score, the rookie strikeout king, tonight.

Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' brilliant young shortstop, set his second major league record of the season Monday night in one of the two games played. Banks, who earlier set a new mark for homers by a shortstop in one year, hit his fifth grand slam homer of the campaign although the St. Louis Cardinals won out in the 12th inning, 6-5, on a homer by Rip Repulski.

Rookie Bud Black pitched a six-hitter for his first victory as the Detroit Tigers beat the Kansas City Athletics, 4-0, in the other game.

Looking AT Sports

By BILL MELTON

Friday about 6 p. m. I had just sat down for supper with the family and the telephone rang. Modene, the oldest daughter, answered and said "It's for you, Daddy." When I answered a football fan asked, "Say, Bill, has Harrisburg beat Murphysboro in the past ten years?" I said "Yes," then the fan asked, "What year and by what score?" That I didn't know. Before I completed supper the above happened two more times. Turned out some guys had up a bet, but didn't know who was winner or loser.

Monday morning Tim T. and I spent about an hour looking thru The Daily Register files, checking football scores for the past several years. Seems that Tim's supper was eaten between phone calls too, Friday.

Went back to 1945 and drew a loss there as it seems Harrisburg resumed its series with Murphysboro in 1946.

That first game of a long, hard fought series resulted in a 6-6 tie.

In 1947 Murphysboro won 13-0 and in 1948 the score was Murphy 13, Harrisburg 12. Each team scored 13 points in 1949.

Harrisburg's first win over Murphysboro came in 1950, 13-6. Harrisburg TDs came on a pass from Bob Conover to Bill Herrmann and on a smash by Val Gribble.

The following year, 1951, was Harrisburg's most one-sided victory, 19-0. In that game Bill Cusic was pulled into the backfield for one play and went for a TD. Floyd Shewmake passed to Jim Zimmer for another and Dick Griffiths went 30 yards for another 6-point-er.

Scores in other years—1952, Murphysboro 7, Harrisburg 0; 1953, Murphysboro 12, Harrisburg 7; 1954, Murphysboro 7, Harrisburg 0.

And in case you don't remember, last Friday night's score was Harrisburg 13, Murphysboro 6.

This Friday night Harrisburg plays at Marion. Thinking there might be some wondering if Harrisburg had lost to Marion in the past decade, also looked for the Harrisburg-Marion scores back to 1945.

Marion has one victory during that time, 12-6 in 1946.

The scores:
1945, Harrisburg 14, Marion 13;
1946, Harrisburg 6, Marion 12;
1947, Harrisburg 30, Marion 6;
1948, Harrisburg 55, Marion 6;
1949, Harrisburg 40, Marion 0;
1950, Harrisburg 42, Marion 6;
1951, Harrisburg 60, Marion 0;
1952, Harrisburg 12, Marion 0;
1953, Harrisburg 30, Marion 7;
1954, Harrisburg 25, Marion 7;
1955, Harrisburg ?, Marion ?.

Bull Pups Beat Eaglets, 18-7, In First Tilt

The Harrisburg Bull Pups opened their 1955 grid season Monday night with an 18-7 victory over the Eldorado Eaglets. The game was played at Eldorado.

Harrisburg gained the victory by completely dominating play in the first and third quarters. The Pups scored one TD in the opening period and two others in the third. Don Biggs, husky, fleet-footed sophomore fullback, carried for all three Harrisburg touchdowns.

Eldorado's scoring came in the final frame, with Pequay carrying for the TD and then racing over for the extra point.

Harrisburg took the opening kickoff and marched down field for a TD. The kickoff was taken on the 13-yard line, but a penalty set the ball back to the eight. From there the Bull Pups put together a drive that carried all the way, with six first downs being accounted for during the rush. Biggs scored from the 15-yard line.

Eldorado took over in the second period and controlled the game, but failed to score. In this quarter the Eaglets had six first-and-tens to none for Harrisburg, but a scoring opportunity was lost on a long yardage loss due to a fumble.

Harrisburg came roaring back in the third quarter and scored in a hurry.

Eldorado took the kick off, lost 12 yards in three plays and dropped back to punt. Yates, Harrisburg end, crashed through to block the punt and the Pups had the ball only five yards from a score. Biggs cracked the Eldorado line for the TD.

Again Harrisburg kicked. After Eldorado picked up a first down to take the ball to near midfield, the Eaglets fumbled and the ball was recovered for Harrisburg by Simpson on the 42 yard line. After a series of plays, in which Harrisburg gains were offset by penalties Bob Clark connected with Don Biggs on a pass that covered 49 yards and scored the Pups' third TD.

Eldorado's only successful scoring drive began midway in the last quarter from the 26-yard line. A 15-yard penalty gave the Eaglets a first down, then Justice connected with Fowler for a 36-yard pass, then hit Willis with another pass and the ball was on the two. Fequay then went over to score and came back to run for the extra point to end scoring for the night.

Next Monday night the Bull Pups will meet Marion at Taylor Field and Eldorado will entertain the Carbondale "B" squad.

Starters last night—Harrisburg: Logan and Yates ends, Hassett and a Martin tackles, Aldridge and Endsley guards, Buchanan center, Clark quarterback, Price and Stone halfbacks, and Biggs fullback; Eldorado: Willis and Fowler ends, McMahon and Stevens tackles, Wood and Goodley guards, Poole center, Justice quarterback, Fequay and Tosh halfbacks and Reasons fullback.

Officials were Bishop, Haile and Kingston, all of Eldorado.

Stars Defeat Grayville, 13-12, For 13th Victory

The Harrisburg Stars came from behind in the 9th inning Sunday afternoon to win their 13th game of the season, defeating Grayville 13-12.

Five runs clattered across home plate in the last of the ninth to give the Stars the victory. A double by Don Smith was the big blow in the victory rally.

"Buzz" Kennedy started on the mound for the Stars, but was relieved in the sixth by Shewmake, who received credit for the win, his third in a row. Clark was the starter for Grayville and was relieved by Tate in the ninth with the tying and winning runs on base so Clark was the loser. Hughes caught for Harrisburg and McComas was the Grayville receiver.

Grayville scored four runs in the first, two in the third, one in the sixth, four in the seventh and one in the eighth.

Harrisburg had two runs in the first. K. Nolen hit the first pitch for a long homer, Karnes tripled and scored on a single by Smith.

The Stars scored again in the third on a home run by Karnes, picked up three in the fourth on a double by Don Smith, a walk to Kennedy, K. Nolen's double and a sacrifice fly by Ziegler. Two more crossed in the sixth when Shewmake was safe on an error, K. Nolen tripled and Karnes lifted a sacrifice fly.

Then came Harrisburg's big ninth.

The Stars will practice Friday and play at Golconda Sunday.

Marciano, Archie Moore Bout Is Postponed

NEW YORK — The Rocky Marciano-Archie Moore heavyweight title fight was postponed for 24 hours today because of Hurricane Ione.

In view of weather forecasts calling for strong winds and heavy rain for the New York area, promoter James D. Norris of the International Boxing Club announced the postponement.

The fight now will be held, weather permitting, at Yankee Stadium Wednesday night. However, the fight, which was scheduled to start at 8:30 p. m. CST tonight, will not start until 8:45 p. m. CST Wednesday because of broadcasting complications.

Should another postponement be necessary, the fight will be staged Thursday night.

The 24-hour postponement came as another frustration and perhaps a costly one for Moore, the long-thwarted, 38-year-old challenger who figured to be bothered more by the waiting than the placid Marciano.

Promoter Jim Norris was uncertain how much a one-day wash-out would hurt the gate. He had expected at least $750,000 from 50,000 fans. The advance sale approximated $600,000, and he figured additionally that at least $50,000 worth of tickets already had been sold in outside consignments.

WEBQ Signs Contract To Broadcast '56 Cardinal Games

Radio Station WEBQ — AM and FM of Harrisburg will again carry the broadcasts of all St. Louis Cardinal games, at home and away, during the 1956 season, it was announced today by Anheuser-Busch, Inc., sponsor of the broadcasts.

The play-by-play will again be handled by Harry Caray, who will be back for his 12th year of Cardinal broadcasts. Caray's sidekicks again will be Joe Garagiola, former catcher for the Cardinals and other major league clubs, and sportscaster Jack Buck, who will be in his third season of Red Bird broadcasts.

The trio will get a running start on the coming season, beginning the schedule of broadcasts, as in the past, with the Cardinals' spring training games in Florida. In signing a contract to carry the '56 games, WEBQ-AM and FM remained a part of the largest baseball network in the country covering the games of one team. The Cardinal network is made up of more than 100 stations in 10 states.

States in which Cardinal games are heard are Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Tennessee and Mississippi.

Father Pleads For Return of Kidnaped Baby

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A heart-broken father pleaded today with the kidnaper of his four-day-old son to return the infant to Mount Zion Hospital as soon as possible.

Dr. Sanford Marcus, the 34-year-old father and a staff physician at the hospital, promised he "will not sign a complaint or try to prosecute" if the child is returned unharmed.

The kidnaper was believed to be a blonde in her mid 30's. "I feel that this was done by a lonely woman... one who was lonesome for a child and went to the most obvious place to get one," Marcus said.

He asked newspapers and radio stations to relay a message from him and his wife, Hanna, 29, that they want their baby, Robert, back.

The kidnaping took place in the Mount Zion Hospital nursery Monday. It touched off one of the most intensive police searches in San Francisco history.

Mount Zion Hospital offered a $1,000 reward for information leading to recovery of the child.

Rep. Dingell, 61, Congressional Tax Expert, Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. John D. Dingell (D-Mich.), a member of Congress since 1932 and an expert on taxes, died Monday night of heart disease at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital.

Dingell, 61, was the first member of the 84th Congress to die. The fact that not a single lawmaker died last session set something of a modern record.

The Michigan congressman came into office on the New Deal sweep in 1932 and had served ever since, rising to second-ranking Democrat on the tax-drafting House Ways & Means Committee.

In that capacity, he had a hand in most of the important tax legislation shaped by Congress in recent years.

Dingell entered the hospital Friday. His condition had not been considered serious but he took a turn for the worse Monday night and died about 9 p. m. EDT.

Only 24 of the 435 House members had served in Congress longer than Dingell. He was elected to 12 consecutive terms.

Freed Missionary Joins Trans-Pacific 'Prayer Meeting'

CHICAGO (AP) — A Baptist missionary freed by the Chinese Communists joined in a Chicago-to-Hong Kong trans-Pacific "prayer meeting" Monday night.

About 50 members of the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society gathered at the group's headquarters here and put in a long distance telephone call to the Rev. Levi A. Lovegren at Hong Kong.

Lovegren told them that he was not mistreated during his four years' imprisonment, but "the mental torture—you might call it the third degree—I had a little of that."
